

WITH COMPASS AND SQUARE

No one has ever gone to Heaven
Says God the Son of Man
Except the one who came from Heaven.
According to God's plan.

But NO said the fallen man
With only compass and a square
Accordingly with his own plan
To the moon and with much fanfare.

But like the feigned pandemic felt
Established for all to uphold
A barrier. A Van Allen Belt
The heavens a lie was sold.

For every good by compass and square
Should be a good worth doing again
But another moon rocket? There is no ware
Especially with so much to feign.

Meanwhile the established stair to Heaven
Secured for one after another
By Christ made into earthly leaven
Beginning with His earthly Mother.

Assumption by Rubens

